

The Mission Statement was adopted as amended on April 28, 1991.

The mission of the First Unitarian Universalist Church of Columbus, Ohio is to offer a strong, liberal religious presence in the Columbus area.

In order to fulfill our mission, our goals are the formation of mutual and caring community
the pursuit of lifespan religious growth and education
the quest for social justice.

As members of the congregation, it is our vision to:

1. Celebrate our congregational diversity as a strength and an asset for growth.
2. Build strong connections with area congregations and assist with the development of other UU societies.
3. Create opportunities for the arts to be experienced and integrated within our congregational life.
4. Recognize and celebrate important life transitions.
5. Offer buildings and grounds which meet the needs of our present and future members and the community of which we are a part.
6. Facilitate opportunities for ministerial and denominational growth.
7. Encourage commitment to social justice at a personal and at a congregational level.
8. Interweave a spiritual base as an integral part of all aspects of church life.
