Thanksgiving Turkey Is Loves' Annual Ball

SUSAN AND JOHN TITUS . . . Santa's Helpers

One of the bazaars to be held before Christmas is Santa's Workshop—a project of the Women's Day Alliance of the First Unitarian Church. Even the tiniest children are doing their bit to make this bazaar a success. Exemplary children in this respect are Susan and John Titus of Worthington (who've contributed their own toys to the cause. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Titus, 234 Rosslyn-av.

Santa's Workshop • At First Unitarian Church

The Women's Day Alliance of the First Unitarian Church, 175 W. 11th Ave., is sponsoring their annual fair to be held today, Nov. 14, from 3:00 to 10:00 p.m.

The bazaar this year is called Santa's Workshop and is an endeavor on the part of various organizations within the church working as Santa's helpers to provide the public with Christmas gifts of quality at budget prices.

On the main floor one will find booths selling babies' and children's needs; Christmas decorations, cards, wrappings and magazines; needlework and handicrafts; baked goods and preserves; bargains; and new books.

Afternoon tea will be served from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. in the annex. The Junior Fair will be located on the second floor and will feature a fish pond and magic show at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Francis Cole and Mrs. Dudley Williams are co-chairmen of the event and extend an invitation to the public to do their Christmas shopping early at Santa's Workshop.
